Master Class: Cultivating the Power of Reflective Practice

Overview

Reflective practice holds great importance in the professional development of coaches, mentors, and coach supervisors as it involves purposefully and critically examining their own experiences, actions and decisions. This process enables them to gain valuable insights, learn from their experiences and improve their practice. In this session, we will cover the significance of reflective practice in these roles and creative ways to reflect individually, with peers, in groups and with a team of coaches.

Coaches, mentors and coach supervisors can utilize various methods such as: self-reflection, journaling, peer supervision or seeking guidance from a mentor or supervisor to engage in reflective practice effectively. By incorporating reflective practice into their regular professional routine, they can enhance their effectiveness, deepen their understanding and provide better support to their clients or mentees.

Indicative Content:

- 1. Enhancing self-awareness through reflective practice
- 2. Reflect to improve professional skills
- 3. Deepening understanding of our clients, supervisees or mentees
- 4. Reflective practice for ethical decision-making
- 5. Enabling professional growth and resilience through ongoing reflective practice

BODY / MIND CONNECTION

Master Class: Body/Mind Connection. Mystery or Mastery

Overview

In this Master Class, we will explore an often untapped source of wisdom - our bodies. Most of us already pay attention to body language when in a coaching session - ours and our clients. During this Master Class, we will dive deeper into body/mind connection and how to connect with this wisdom. Once connected, the next question is how will you use it to benefit you, your clients and advance the profession of coaching.

Indicative Content:

- Understanding the body/mind connection
- Experiencing exercises to tap into the body wisdom
- Reflecting on where this wisdom will take you and your clients

Competency Focus

Competency #6: Listens Actively

6.1 Coach responds to client with an invitation into a deeper exploration of client thinking and behaviors.

6.2 Coach's responses to the client demonstrates an understanding of the client's emotions, energy, or learning and growth, in alignment with the client's agenda.

Master Class: Arts Based Coaching: Using creativity to deepen communication and connection

Learning Outcomes

Overview

We will explore the transformative power of arts-based coaching as a pathway to deepen connection—both within ourselves and with our clients. Creativity is not just an abstract concept; it’s a dynamic tool that unlocks new perspectives, fosters emotional resonance, and cultivates a coaching mindset rooted in curiosity and presence. Drawing on ICF Core Competencies 2 Coaching Mindset and 5 Presence, this session will invite you to step into a creative space, to experiment with innovative approaches, and discover how these practices enhance your ability to connect authentically with clients. We’ll address the questions: How can creativity amplify your coaching? And how can it inspire your clients to explore their own depths in service of their growth?

Competency Foci

Competency 2: Embodies a Coaching Mindset

Coach develops and maintains a mindset that is open, curious, and flexible and client centered

- 2.2 Engages in ongoing learning and development as a coach
- 2.5 Uses awareness of self and one’s intuition to benefit clients

Competency 5: Maintains Presence

Coach is fully conscious and present with the client, employing a style that is open, flexible, grounded and confident

- 5.2 Demonstrates curiosity during the coaching process
- 5.5 Is comfortable working in a space of not knowing
- 5.6 Creates or allows space for silence, pause or reflection

WHAT'S NOT BEING SAID?

Master Class: What's not being said?

Objectives:

- Consider how to enhance our coaching skills by facilitating more transcendental thought processes
- Gain some practical strategies to immediately take forward into your practice
- Explore specific coaching competencies related to what is not being said

This CoachME Level 3 Master Class will focus on what lies beneath. So often when we are coaching, we sense that there is much more that the client could explore and, in masterful conversations, it is a fine art to create space and partner with your client to facilitate deep dives into the whole person and their systemic perspective. A focus on what is not being said often leads to coaching on a holistic level and, as a result, a deeper awareness of learning and growth. In what ways can you partner with your clients to hone in on 'what's not being said' in order to enhance your practice, as well as the overall coaching experience for your clients?

Competencies explored will include aspects of 4, 6 and 7:

- Focuses on what the client is and is not saying to fully understand what is being communicated in the context of the client systems and to support client self-expression.
- Recognizes and inquires when there is more to what the client is communicating.
- Support the client in reflecting on their learning and discovery about themselves at a holistic level
- Coach's listening is cumulative from session to session and throughout each individual session.
- Use of inquiry, exploration, silence and other techniques that support the client in achieving new or deeper learning and awareness.
- Stimulates new client insights with minimal, precise questions that challenge the client to explore more deeply or to go beyond current thinking and feeling.

WHAT'S NOT BEING SAID?

This Master Class will be delivered by:

Caroline Beckett MCC, EIA, ESIA, MA

- Caroline is a professional, well-qualified ICF Master Certified Coach and also holds Global Individual Accreditation at Senior Practitioner level EMCC. She works with clients across continents, cultures and contexts including large multinationals, SMEs, governmental and non-profit sectors.
- She holds a Global Supervision Individual Award with EMCC and is a registered, experienced, ICF Mentor Coach and Supervisor.
- Delivering on the CoachME Level 1, 2 and 3 programmes, Caroline especially delights in training aspiring Mentor Coaches and Supervisors.
- Ultimately, Caroline has a passion for coaching, mentor coaching, SUPERvision and training delivery; she thrives on making a difference by helping people and organisations to develop their competencies and reach their potential.

Master Class: Blending Gestalt Approaches for Masterful Coaching

Overview

Using gestalt in coaching enables coachees to get in touch with their 'whole selves' and to gain deeper awareness and insight, not only of their cognitions, but also of their physiological reactions to the topics they are working on. The approach helps coachees to identify how their perceptions, and the meaning they make, take shape in their whole being. Gestalt coaching enables coachees to identify and reflect on patterns of their behaviour, and through this to make changes in who they are being.

Indicative Content:

- 12 ways to blend gestalt approaches into your coaching sessions one-on-one, with groups and with teams
- Why and how gestalt deepens understanding for clients
- Experience a demonstration of the gestalt empty chair experiment
- Practice the empty chair technique

Competency Focus

We focus specifically on 'CULTIVATING LEARNING AND GROWTH - Competency #8 Facilitates Client Growth - 8.1 Coach checks in with client and their progress, learnings, and insights in natural and spontaneous ways throughout the session.' 'Coach invites the client to explore the lens through which the client is observing their current situation.' and 'Coach's invitations to the client primarily focus on exploring deeper learning or a path forward.'

Master Class: Welcoming Metaphors into the Coaching Adventure

Overview

After listening to Master Coaches around the globe, our connection as humans is founded on story, metaphor and images. We nourish our being and connect to the deeper meaning of our perspectives through these methods and the systems we interact with. Metaphors help bring clarity and meaning to our clients and team members in ways that interact and stimulate all our senses which support the meaning making of this important work. Our exploration of this space is an important element of higher level coaching and co-creating awareness and growth through conversation and the reconnection within ourselves.

Indicative Content:

- Explore ways metaphors can be used in coaching and ways they create impact in sessions
- The science behind metaphors and their impact on perception and understanding
- Using metaphors to facilitate self-discovery and insight
- Techniques for exploring and creating metaphors with clients
- Practice using metaphors in skill drills with your
